Cuba Radar Post Hit, Report Says

PANAMA CITY, Aug. 31 (AP)—Anti-Castro commandos destroyed a radar station commanded by three Russian officers and manned by 150 Cuban soldiers on the eastern coast of Cuba Sunday, Cuban exile leader Manuel Artime said tonight.

Artime, Secretary of the Revolutionary Recovery Movement, said the 55-minute attack was carried out at 6 a.m. against the installation at Cabo Cruz on the south coast of Oriente Province.

He said he had no reports of casualties either among the attackers or the defenders but that the radar site was destroyed.
